Academic Qualifications:

- B.Sc. in Physics, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki
- M.Sc. in Physics, the University of Chicago
- Ph.D. in Physics, the University of Chicago

Appointments:

- Research Associate, Enrico Fermi Institute, Univ. of Chicago
- Research Associate, Harvard-Smithsonian Center for Astrophysics
- Lecturer, Harvard University
- Visiting Professor, University of St-Andrews
- Visiting Professor, University of Turin
- Visiting Professor, Observatoire de Paris
- Assistant, Associate, Full professor, Univ. of Crete

Teaching Activities: (current)

- Theoretical Mechanics (undergraduate)
- Plasma Astrophysics (undergraduate)
- Plasma Astrophysics (postgraduate)
- Space Environment (postgraduate).

Research Interests/Activities: (last 10 years)

- Theoretical Astrophysics
- Astrophysical Plasmas
- Solar, stellar and extragalactic astrophysical Jets
- Solar Physics and Instrumentation
- Environmental Studies, Seismology.

Scientific Publications/Citations:

- 255+ total publications
- 125+ refereed publications
- 4500+ citations
- 1100+ normalized citations
- Hirsch index, $h=37$

Distinctions:

- Elected by invitation Prof. of Astrophysics, Un. of Athens
- Elected President, Hellenic Astronomical Society (2006-2010)
- National representative to ESA Science Program Committee (2005-2010)
- Member of the Hellenic Council for Research & Technology (2004-2010)

Other Activities:

- Director of the National Observatory of Athens (2010-2016)
- Invited panel member of EU/Ideas/ERC Advanced Grants continuously since 2008
- Invited evaluator of Marie Curie European postdoctoral Fellowships continuously since 2005
- Greek PI to Coronagraph Control Board component of ESA's PROBA 3 mission since 2009.
- P.I. of several large research projects funded by the EC on Astrophysics, Space Physics, Environment, Seismology
- Author of several University textbooks (Introduction to Theoretical Mechanics, Plasma Astrophysics, etc).
- Author of a special volume commemorating 170 years of continuous operation of the National Observatory of Athens.
- Translator to the Greek language of Calculus (Thomas/Finney), Astrophysics (F. Shu), Invisible Universe (G. Field/E. Chaisson), published by Crete University Press.
